Feverish Influence of the Erie Election.

WALL STREET, TUESDAY, NOV. 25-6 P. M.

There were many traits upon 'Change to-day which showed that speculation was fast relapsing into the tate of a brokers' market. It is true that there were rather important fluctuations made in some things, but, as a whole, the market was given over to the ging matters vice the magnates of speculation, who re resting for the time being—if not upon their learels, at least with greatly augmented bank so-sounts. Notwithstanding the fact that the market has been left to the high privates, so to speak, of speculation, a large business was transacted to-day. There were sharp fluctuations in Eric, Kansas and Texas and the coal stocks, attended by periods of strength and depression in the general market and a iding up of the whole list with a good deal ess and in many cases at an advance upon pening figures. Erie proved to be the most mersurial of the lot. The price rose and fell as stories of Mr. Vanderbilt being represented in the new direction. From 35 ½ at the opening the quotation lell to 33 ½, advanced to 37 ½ and closed at 36 ½. The gain for the day was accordingly 1½ per cent, and it was made upon the belief that the election of direc-tors was significant of the introduction of a powerful derbilt interest in the new Board. With the exeption of three names the old Board stands as it did. The new directors are Mr. Thomas Dickson, presient of the Delaware and Hudson Coal Company (a Vanderbilt man); Mr. Harrison Durkee, a director western Union (a Vanderbilt man), and Mr. V. L. Strong, a woollen merchant (a dark horse). With these gentlemen added to three or four others of the old direction of pronounced Vanderbilt ten-dencies it would appear that the Vanderbilt interest is very strongly represented in the new management. It may be made stronger yet on Friday—when the Board will organize for the election of officers by the dropping out of some of the directors elect and the substitution of new men who may more distinctly represent the Vanderbilt interest as the whole market turned to-day upon Eric, and the rest of the list simply swayed to and fro with the pendulations in this stock, there is nothing of fance to be said about it. The bids for the forty additional Board seats were opened this afternoon. As well as could be learned from a member of the Governing Committee who had dropped into Delmonico's late in the day, and appeared to grow somewhat mixed as to what had actually taken place, one hundred and three bids were put in. Of these 10 were at $14,000 and over, while the remainder ranged from $10,000 to $14,000. The highest bids were $15,000 and the lowst $10,000. It is estimated that the forty seats can be sold at an average of $13,000. There was a quiet market in Philadelphia. Messrs. C. Evans & Co. quote the closing price of Pennsylvania Bailroad at 49% a 49%, and of Reading at 34% a 34%. Total sales at the Board to-day were 443,478 shares, against 448,265 yesterday. Following is a synopsis

The Mork Lane Express, in its reformation, Nov. 25, 1879.

The Mork Lane Express, in its reformation, and it will proceed still faster if the weather smellorates. However, in some districts it is formed that the future prospects are jeopardized by the badness of seed wheat, really good samples of which are exceedingly scarce. The operations in Sotiand are mere backward, but if the weather remains propritions for another fortnights fair area will be sown. The harvest is now completed in the later districts of Sociand, but the results are unsatisfactory. In England the home crop wheat is arriving more freely at the country markets, but its condition continues unsatisfactory. Provincial trade was dull. Wheat declined is, per quarter in many important centres. In London the imports of foreign wheat were again unusually heavy, the supplies from Monday to Friday having been 87,280 quarters. A large proportion of the imports were from Russia, and these may yet be prolonged if the weather continues mild, as no defluite news of the closing of the Battic ports has been received. The future course of prices, however, depends on the action of America alone. The gigantic visible supply fetters trade. Of course the large imports now arriving are considerably in excess of the present reculrements, but, notwithintanding the surface fine traditions. The suppless may yet be prolonged in the series of prices, however, depends on the action of America alone. The gigantic visible supply fetters trade.
